23 (1) TRANSFER OF CONSUMER PROTECTION FUNCTIONS.

24 (a) Assets and liabilities. All assets and liabilities of the department of 25 agriculture, trade and consumer protection that are primarily related to consumer

1 protection programs or functions that are being transferred to the department of 2 justice under this act shall become the assets and liabilities of the department of
3 justice. The departments of justice and agriculture, trade and consumer protection 4 shall jointly determine these assets and liabilities and shall jointly develop and 5 implement a plan for their orderly transfer. In the event of any disagreement 6 between the departments, the secretary of administration shall resolve the 7 disagreement.

8 (b) Employee transfers. The departments of justice and agriculture, trade and 9 consumer protection shall jointly determine which positions that are primarily 10 related to consumer protection programs or functions that are being transferred to 11 the department of justice under this act shall be transferred to the department of 12 justice. In the event of a disagreement between the departments, the secretary of 13 administration shall resolve the disagreement. The positions determined to be 14 transferred under this paragraph, and the incumbent employees in those positions, 15 shall be transferred to the department of justice.

16 (c) Employee status. Employees transferred under paragraph (b) have all the 17 rights and the same status under subchapter V of chapter 111 and chapter 230 of the 18 statutes in the department of justice that they enjoyed in the department of 19 agriculture, trade and consumer protection immediately before the transfer.
20 Notwithstanding section 230.28 (4) of the statutes, no employee so transferred who 21 has attained permanent status in class is required to serve a probationary period.

22 (d) Supplies and equipment. All tangible personal property, including records, 23 of the department of agriculture, trade and consumer protection that are primarily 24 related to consumer protection programs or functions that are being transferred to 25 the department of justice under this act are transferred to the department of justice.

1 The departments of justice and agriculture, trade and consumer protection shall 2 jointly identify the tangible personal property, including records, and shall jointly 3 develop and implement a plan for their orderly transfer. In the event of a 4 disagreement between the departments, the secretary of administration shall 5 resolve the disagreement.

6 (e) Pending matters. Any matter pending with the department of agriculture,
7 trade and consumer protection that is primarily related to a consumer protection 8 program or function that is being transferred to the department of justice under this 9 act is being transferred to the department of justice. All materials submitted to or 10 actions taken by the department of agriculture, trade and consumer protection with 11 respect to the pending matter are considered as having been submitted to or taken 12 by the department of justice.

13 (f) Contracts. All contracts entered into by the department of agriculture, trade 14 and consumer protection or by the department of justice that are primarily related 15 to consumer protection programs or functions that are being transferred to the 16 department of justice under this act, and that are in effect on the effective date of this 17 paragraph, remain in effect and those contracts entered into by the department of 18 agriculture, trade and consumer protection are transferred to the department of 19 justice. The departments of justice and agriculture, trade and consumer protection
20 shall jointly identify these contracts and shall jointly develop and implement a plan 21 for their orderly transfer. In the event of any disagreement between the 22 departments, the secretary of administration shall resolve the disagreement. The 23 department of justice shall carry out the obligations under these contracts until the 24 obligations are modified or rescinded by the department of justice to the extent 25 allowed under the contract.

1 (g) Rules and orders. All rules promulgated by the department of agriculture,
2 trade and consumer protection that are in effect on the effective date of this 3 paragraph and that are primarily related to consumer protection programs or 4 functions that are being transferred to the department of justice under this act 5 remain in effect until their specified expiration date or until amended or repealed by 6 the department of justice. All orders issued by the department of agriculture, trade 7 and consumer protection that are in effect on the effective date of this paragraph and 8 that are primarily related to consumer protection programs or functions that are 9 being transferred to the department of justice under this act remain in effect until 10 their specified expiration date or until modified or rescinded by the department of 11 justice. copy/paste burning dot # from p. 851, line 21

15 (1) TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS OF THE BOARD ON HEALTH CARE INFORMATION.

16 (a) Assets and liabilities. On the effective date of this paragraph, the assets and 17 liabilities of the department of health and family services primarily related to the 18 functions of the board on health care information, as determined by the secretary of 19 administration, shall become the assets and liabilities of the department of 20 administration.

21 (b) Position and employee transfers. All incumbent employees holding 22 positions in the department of health and family services performing duties 23 primarily related to the functions of the board on health care information, as 24 determined by the secretary of administration, are transferred on the effective date 25 of this paragraph to the department of administration.

1 (c) Employee status. Employees transferred under paragraph (b) have all the
2 rights and the same status under subchapter V of chapter 111 and chapter 230 of the 3 statutes in the department of administration that they enjoyed in the department
4 of health and family services immediately before the transfer. Notwithstanding 5 section 230.28 (4) of the statutes, no employee so transferred who has attained
6 permanent status in class is required to serve a probationary period.

7 (d) Tangible personal property. On the effective date of this paragraph, all 8 tangible personal property, including records, of the department of health and family
9 services that is primarily related to the functions of the board on health care 10 information, as determined by the secretary of administration, is transferred to the 11 department of administration.

12 (e) Contracts. 1. All contracts entered into by the board on health care 13 information in effect on the effective date of this subdivision remain in effect and are 14 transferred to the health care quality and patient safety board. The health care
15 quality and patient safety board shall carry out any obligations under such a contract
16 until the contract is modified or rescinded by the health care quality and patient 17 safety board to the extent allowed under the contract.

18 2. All contracts entered into by the department of health and family services

22 administration. The department of administration shall carry out any obligations 23 under such a contract until the contract is modified or rescinded by the department 24 of administration to the extent allowed under the contract.

1 (f) Rules and orders. All rules promulgated by the board on health care
2 information that are in effect on the effective date of this subdivision remain in effect
3 until their specified expiration date or until amended or repealed by the health care 4 quality and patient safety board.

5 (g) Pending matters. Any matter pending with the board on health care
6 information on the effective date of this paragraph is transferred to the health care 7 quality and patient safety board and all materials submitted to or actions taken by 8 the board on health care information with respect to the pending matter are 9 considered as having been submitted to or taken by the health care quality and 10 patient safety board.

11 (2) HEALTH CARE INFORMATION; RULE MAKING. Notwithstanding the requirement
12 and authorization for the department of health and family services to promulgate 13 rules under section 153.75 of the statutes, before July 1, 2007, the department of or state employees or to a health insurance plan offered by a health maintenance organization that has the largest commercial enrollment in the state of persons who do not have coverage under the Medical Assistance (MA) program; and 3) mandatory copayments for benefits in addition to the copayments for prescription drugs. The bill requires DHFS to seek enactment of statutory language that implements any cost-saving measures approved by the granting of a waiver.

Also under current law, when an MA recipient or a person with coverage under BadgerCare or the program providing prescription drug assistance for elderly persons (SeniorCare) purchases a prescription drug, he or she pays a copayment and then DHFS reimburses the pharmacy an amount that is based on a national average wholesale price, plus a percentage or amount for a dispensing fee. Under the bill, DHFS must investigate alternatives to using the average wholesale price pharmacy reimbursement methodology for brand name drugs purchased or dispensed under MA, BadgerCare, and SeniorCare, and must submit a report with its findings, conclusions, and recommendations to DOA no later than June 30, 2006.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
